

EXPECT TO COLLECT SUM OF $53,000,000

SOUTHERN METHODISTS OUTLINE
PLANS FOR HANDLING GREAT CENTENARY FUND.

Organization Will Collect Largest Amount Ever Handled By Any Religious Denomination Anywhere.

The Centenary Commission of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has announced its plan for collecting the $53,000,000 which was pledged for the missionary work of the church in the recent eight-day drive. The plan was prepared and will be directed by Colonel John E. Edgerton, of Tennessee, the general centenary treasurer and the director of the department of finance for the Centenary Commission.

Colonel Edgerton is a well known business man. He is president and manager of the Lebanon Woolen Mills, president of the Tennessee State Manufacturers Association, and during the war he was a member of the executive committee of the war industry board appointed by President Wilson.

"Our slogan is no shrinkage, but an increase," said Colonel Edgerton recently. "Just as the Southern Methodist church has surpassed all records in securing pledges for benevolent purposes and has raised the largest sum ever given to any church at one time in the history of the world, so do we expect to set a new record in the collection of these pledges."

An Extensive Organization.
The organization through which these pledges will be collected has four centers of responsibility. The first is a general finance commission with headquarters at Nashville, headed by Colonel Edgerton. This commission has prepared the standard plan and will direct the entire movement, handing down to the various bodies throughout the church detailed plans for their guidance.

There will also be a conference cabinet in each annual conference of the church, about forty in number. These conference cabinets will be composed of the Conference Missionary Secretary, Conference Campaign Director, the Lay leader, and the Conference Centenary Treasurer. Each of these officials have certain specific duties, and will direct the work of collecting all the pledges in each annual conference.

In each of the four hundred districts of the church there is a similar cabinet composed of the Presiding Elder, the Lay leaders, Campaign Directors and the Chairman of the Methodist Minute Men. The Conference Missionary Secretary is an ex-officio member of all district cabinets. The work of collecting in the districts will be supervised by this district cabinet.

Twenty Thousand Churches.
In each of the 20,000 local churches there will be local cabinets composed of the pastor, the centenary treasurer, the campaign director, the lay leader, the chairman of the minute men, the Sunday school superintendent and the president of the Woman's Missionary Society. This cabinet will do all the actual work of collecting the individual pledges.

The persons who made subscriptions will be divided into lists of twenty-five and the lists will be placed in charge of a certain member of the church cabinet who will collect all pledges as they come due.

One feature of the standard plan is that the local church will be responsible for collecting the full amount of its subscription. If any subscriber dies or meets with misfortune such as to render it impossible for him to pay his pledge, it will be the duty of the church cabinet to secure another person to take the place of the one thus become delinquent.

It is also proposed that every new member who comes into the church shall also be asked to make a contribution to the Centenary fund.

The Centenary fund of $53,000,000 will be used for the church in an extension of its missionary work throughout the world. Several million will be spent in the devastated regions of France, Belgium, Poland and Russia. Other millions will go to the seven foreign fields occupied by the church—Mexico, Brazil, Cuba, Africa, China, Japan and Korea. Other millions will be spent in the industrial sections of the great cities, in the mountains, among the immigrants, the negroes and the Indians, and in building churches in the missionary territory of the United States.

BOYS AND GIRLS HAVE CHANCE TO BECOME POULTRY CLUB MEMBERS

(By R. N. Crane)

Boys and girls, look! Had you thought about the profits that you could make raising a few pure-bred chickens in your spare time before and after school?

It's heaps of fun, to say nothing about the money.

We had 3,400 members last year—this year we want 30,000. Lots of boy scouts belong, and girl scouts, too!

Frances Easley of Sumner Co., a school girl 15 years old, made a net profit of $147.73.

James Hogan, a regular baseball fan of the same county, made $35.

Kathleen Snoddy, of Lincoln Co., made $123.27.

Ross Rogers of Lincoln Co. made $20.25.

Harold McDaniel, from just one setting of 15 eggs, made $14.15.

Mary Cole, who is only 13 years old, made $185.

Rachael Alsop of Williamson Co. made $23.10.

Rossie Whitting, 16 years old, with just a few minutes night and morning, made $33.25.

Gladyce Donovan won $10 at the state fair and made $98.50.

"Boss, it was a extra decoration. De Kaiser hisself sent it to me by a special messenger what dropped dead jus, befo, he give it to me."

A Colored soldier whose hand had been blown off was admitted to a base hospital.

"Nurse," he said, "kin Ah go back to de front tomorrow?"

"Certainly not", said the nurse. "You have lost a hand."

"Dat's why Ah wants to go back, nurse. Ah left mah razor in dat hand."

A colored aspirant for a commission was being examined.

"And supposing you were in command of a regiment in the field of battle and, in some manner, your men should be scattered over a territory of several miles. How would you collect them?"

"Well, suh, answered the prospective, as he scratched his head, "I think I would take out a pair of dice and hollah: 'Whose dollar bill!'"

Why Suffer?

Mrs. J. A. Cox, of Anderson, W. Va., writes: "My daughter... suffered terribly. She could not turn in bed... the doctors gave her up, and we brought her home to die. She had suffered so much at... time. Having heard of Cardui, we got it for her."

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"In a few days, she began to improve," Mrs. Cox continues, "and had no trouble at... Cardui cured her, and we sing its praises everywhere. We receive many thousands of similar letters every year, telling of the good Cardui has done for women who suffer from complaints so common to their sex. It should do you good, too. Try Cardui."
